

The Criminal Justice Summit – 20 – 22 August 2018 • Te Rauparaha Arena • Porirua

13 July 2018

Public Engagement Principles: • Evidence informed • Belief that we can effect change • Every voice is heard • Transparent & Open • Accountable • Transformative

Launches the public engagement, starts to build momentum to explore possible solutions allow people to contribute to the shaping of the reform, to connect and share ideas, provide feedback to government on how the CJS could be different and to go home and take action in their communities

The Summit | The experience

MCs: ✓ Marcus Akuhata-Brown S9(2)(a)

Reception: Grand Hall, Parliament

Prime Minister's address:

- Set the challenge for the summit
- Articulate the vision for future CJS and how we do this work.

Minister Little:

- Launch the public conversation and articulate his commitment to the vision

Facebook live: Ministers Little, Nash, Davis, Parker & Martin (TBC)

By invite: include Advisory Group and key speakers, Ngati Toa & Porirua City Council.

Day 2: Context

Powhiri

Introduction of Ministers by S9(2)(a)

Ministers Introduction

Intent, Mandate, Acknowledge current context

Individual reflection – share at table

Lived experience – multiple stations/Panel:

- experience of the system •advocates
- connected to the system •working in the system

Playback

Yesterday & Today – Ministers/CEs:

- What's working, what is not working • Victims
- Family & Sexual Violence • Addressing disproportionate numbers of Māori in the system

Playback

The Impact of Yesterday & Today on people:

- Victims vision for the Justice system - Panel

Playback

Hope:

- Medellin case study • Learning from Youth Justice – Judge Becroft

Playback

Share observations

The invitation process:

12 July 2018

Letter issued to Ministers requesting nominations

12 July 2018

Online expressions of interest live via safeandeffectivejustice.govt.nz

27 July 2018

Cut off for ministerial invites

3 August 2018

The expression of interest will run concurrently with approaching participants nominated by Ministers and senior stakeholders until the summit is full.

Cut off date for final confirmation of attendance

21 – 22 August 2018
Criminal Justice Reform Summit

Day 3: Context

Ministers Reflections from Day 2 Multiple breakouts:

- Addressing disproportionate numbers of Māori in the system
  - Supporting Victims of Crime
  - New Approaches to Bail and Custody
- Fostering successful reintegration, supporting whānau

Multiple breakouts:

- The future of prisons in New Zealand
  - Therapeutic approaches
  - Prevention
  - Alternative pathways

Values:

- Values of the future justice system for New Zealand

Same/Different:

- Define where things are aligned and where there is differences
  - What is the one thing you will start, stop or change
  - What is the one thing you will do differently when you get home

Closing remarks & Farewell

Confirmed international attendees

- Dr Elizabeth Grant – Aboriginal Environments – Australia
- Adam Mansky – Center for Court Innovation – USA
- Alison Macphail – Criminal Justice Reform – Canada
- Tara Boh Blair – Pretrial Services – USA
- Jon Gould – Justice, Law & Criminology – USA

27 days

Countdown to the Summit

suggestions for invites to be sent to: safeandeffective@justice.govt.nz