

Application for warrant to seize property

When should I use this form?

This form lets you apply for a warrant that will enable a bailiff to seize and sell property belonging to the judgment debtor to pay a judgment debt. Use this form if all the following apply:

- you are the judgment creditor and the money owed to you in a judgment or court order has not been paid
- you can provide an address for the judgment debtor or you have been advised that the Ministry of Justice has found an address.

How do I complete this form?

This form has three sections:

- Section A is for information required to process your application. You must complete all the steps in Section A.
- Section B is for the date and your signature. You must complete Section B.
- Section C is for extra information to assist the enforcement process. You only need to complete the steps in Section C that are relevant to your application.
- You can only use this form to apply for one warrant for one debtor. If you have more than one debtor, you must file a separate application for each debtor.

Who can sign this form?

You can only sign this form if you are the judgment creditor or their lawyer. Anyone can help you complete the rest of the form.

How much does it cost to make an application?

The application fee is $200. The court can order the judgment debtor to repay the fee.

What other costs are involved?

When property is seized there will be other costs payable such as the cost of towing a vehicle or the storage of property. These costs are paid from the proceeds of sale before the balance is paid to the judgment creditor.

KEY WORDS

Below are explanations of some of the words we use in this application form.

Confidential address request A request to the Ministry of Justice to check its records for an address for the judgment debtor.
