Privacy Statement

- The Legal Services Commissioner (“the Commissioner”) will collect or disclose personal information about you to meet its responsibilities under the Legal Services Act 2011, associated regulations and/or any other relevant statute or court order.
- This information may be used for statistical and/or research purposes and in this context will not individually identify you.
- Under the Privacy Act 2020 you have the right to have access to all information held about yourself, and to request correction of that information.
- It is not compulsory for you to provide the Commissioner with information, but if you do not provide all the information requested, your application may not be able to be assessed, or may be declined.

I acknowledge that:

- I may be required to provide evidence to support the information I have supplied in this application.
- The Commissioner will assess my financial means for a repayment and as a result I may be required to repay some or all of my legal aid.
- Interest will be charged on all my legal aid debt still outstanding 6 months after my debt is finally determined.
- If I fail to meet my repayment obligations the Commissioner may:
 - send my debt to a collection agency
 - use a deduction notice to automatically deduct payments from my benefit, employment income or bank account.

- Legal aid may be refused if I have any debt from a previous legal aid grant that is in arrears.
- Any assets and property that I own may be the subject of a charge in favour of the Commissioner to cover some or all of my required repayment amount. This includes any interest charged on my debt.
- Any assets and property including money or property that I receive or retain as a result of the proceedings are the subject of a charge in favour of the Commissioner to cover all or some of my legal aid.
- I must notify the Commissioner immediately of any change to my address, or if my income or assets (disposable capital) increase while I am receiving legal aid or have a debt to the Commissioner.
- I understand that I must provide up-to-date information in any enquiry into my financial means while I am receiving legal aid or have a debt to the Commissioner.
- It is an offence, for which I am liable on conviction to a fine, to:
 - fail without reasonable excuse to furnish information, or answer questions, or produce any document or thing, when I am required to do so under the provisions of the Legal Services Act 2011 or associated regulations
 - knowingly provide false and misleading information, or answer any question in a false and misleading way and
 - intentionally avoid payment to the Commissioner of any proceeds of proceedings.
- Paying my lawyer the legal aid user charge.
- The Commissioner contacting Work and Income or any other third party to obtain verification of my financial means, bank account, employer or address and phone number. That is, I give my permission for:
 - the Commissioner to verify my benefit income statement with Work and Income, and for Work and Income to provide information about my benefit income to the Commissioner and
 - other third parties (including my employer, bank or other income source) to provide the information they are asked for to the Commissioner.
- The Commissioner contacting me by post, telephone, text message, facsimile, email or any other verbal, written or electronic form unless I advise the Commissioner otherwise.
- My lawyer providing any file, record, document or statement, or giving any information for the purposes of an audit or an investigation by the performance review committee or any other investigation of my lawyer under the Legal Services Act 2011, and I waive legal professional privilege for this purpose.
- Legal Aid Services will provide the contact details of my assigned counsel to the Police Prosecution Service and for my assigned counsel to receive disclosure and for their offices to be the address for service of any documents on my behalf to progress my case.
- I have no insurance or indemnification available to cover some or all of my legal costs.
- The information I have given in this application is true and not misleading, and this application is completed to the best of my knowledge.
- I have read and understood the Privacy statement, and my acknowledgement, consent and confirmation statements set out above.
